WINE IS ART EDITION

2 0 2 5

Another new wine list off the press, every time you get the new catalogue back from the printers, it feels like the best list we have produced, the updated Wine Is Art 2025 Edition is no exception, it is the best list we have ever produced and we are incredibly appreciative for Lucy Pittaway allowing us to use her fantastic artwork.

Buying wines is a very personal thing and our suppliers become friends and we enjoy working together and seeing both businesses develop. The wines from Domaine de la Chapelle in Solutré in the south of Burgundy make outstanding Pouilly-Fuissé, Saint – Veran and personal favourite Mâcon-Solutré-Pouilly, are just what we are about. the best we can possibly buy and a very good working relationship and pricing!

Down the road in Italy, we continue to grow our range and rekindle old relationships from time gone by. I had the pleasure of working with Casale Falchini previously and happy to now be adding their excellent award winning range of Vernaccia, Chianti, and Rosso Toscano.

An area of expansion this year is the range by the iconic Bernhard Ott 'Mister Veltliner'. Me and William had the pleasure of meeting Bernhard at Wine Paris and tasting his fantastic range that are some of the very best from Austria. Happy to report that we're now adding a Gemischter Satz to our range

Our allocations of Fine Wine continue to thrive with an ever expanding range from the very best such as Tenuta San Guido and Sassicaia to Felton Road in New Zealand and the ever excellent wines by Vilafonté in Stellenbosch.

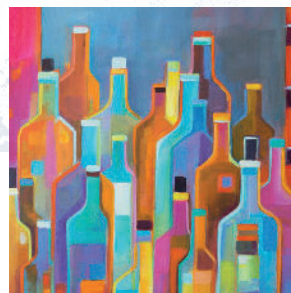

We continue to try and improve the wine list but also to improve and modernise our customer service and satisfaction levels. Hopefully you can see that. Our catalogue of the best restaurants supplied by Firth & Co continues to grow as well as our private clients list, who can now order online at firthandco.com or just give Callum in the office a call or an email callum@firthandco.com and he will look after you.

Thank you for your support and we hope you enjoy our very best wine list.

With very best wishes.

FIRTH & CO WHAT'S NEW

Old World

Domaine de la Chapelle - Burgundy, France

The Mâconnais in the south of Burgundy produces a fruitier, more modern style of wine. Domaine de la Chapelle, where Pascal Rollet and his wife Catherine, and son, Thomas manage the small estate, was first tasted by Andrew in Copenhagen. Grown at the foot of the "Rock of Solutré". Quite some white burgundy at this price.

Bruno Andreu - Languedoc, France

Coming from a family of winegrowers based in the Languedoc, Bruno Andreu's passion for the region and winemaking has shown the region at its very best, blending tradition and modernity. Clean, modern, forward-thinking wines with a little French rustic charm.

Casale Falchini - Tuscany, Italy

Casale Falchini is surrounded by the beautiful hillsides of the Tuscany countryside. Established in 1964 by Riccardo Falchini, Casale Falchini became the first specialised vineyards of Vernaccia di San Gimignano at the beginning of 1968 with 65% of its production currently dedicated to the variety. The red wines offer a fascinating and interesting expression, owing to the unique soil and climate. Tuscan excellence.

Château de Quinçay - Loire, France

Located in the heart of the Loire, Château de Quinçay have been producing wine for 5 generations since 1860. Through the years, the estate has been passed through the Cadart from generation to generation, each dedicating a passion for wine and the Loire. A wine rich in history and tradition

Domaine Bernhard Ott - Wagram, Austria

The man who put Grüner Veltliner on the map. The Ott family have been growing and producing wine in the region of Wagram since 1889, with Bernhard, the fourth generation, managing the winery since 1993. Bernhard Ott says of himself: 'Ich bin ein Veltliner' and is a household name in Austria, he is even called Mister Veltliner.

FIRTH & CO WHAT'S NEW

New World

Vilafonté - Stellenbosch, South Africa

A vineyard different by design, with ancient soils, the iconic Vilafonté is the coming together of the very best from California and South Africa - Mike Ratcliffe, Dr Zelma Long, and Dr Phil Freese. The vision is one of an uncompromising determination to produce wines which stand shoulder-to-shoulder with the great wines of the world. Nothing less.

Corryton Burge - Tanunda, Australia

The Burge family name is synonymous with the Australian wine industry. The launch of Corryton Burge by the 6th Generation Brother and Sister duo; Trent and Amelia is the next step in the family's winemaking journey.

Payten & Jones - Yarra Valley, Australia

Founded in 2007, Bebn (Payten) and Troy (Jones) were always destined to work together. Since their foundation, Payten & Jones has been a winery that follows its own path, specialising in minimal intervention, natural farming and winemaking with sustainability at the forefront. Wine that captures the terroir of the Yarra Valley.

Felton Road - Central Otago, New Zealand

Felton Road produces a rare beast - A superb Pinot Noir wine, one of the best examples from outside Burgundy. Farmed organically & biodynamically since 2000, the wines of Felton Road are one of elegance, complexity and exceptional depth of fruit.

Grosgrain Vineyards - Washington, USA

After leaving their careers behind as an attorney and fashion designer, Matt & Kelly Austin stumbled across a small vineyard in the Walla Walla Valley in Washington and established Grosgrain Vineyards, championing underdog grapes and sustainable farming practices.

WHITE BURGUNDY

The home of the Chardonnay grape, and this is where Chardonnay shows at its absolute best. Often developed with the careful use of oak to develop the aromas and flavours as well as to add longevity to some of the great wines. Great Chardonnay and great White Burgundy should never be dominated by the oaky flavours that spoilt so many New World imitators in years gone by.

OLIVIER TRICON - DOMAINE VAUROUX

The history of the Domains de Vauroux is intertwined with the rebirth of the Chablis winegrowing region, undertaken in the 1970s. Olivier Tricon's father, Jean-Pierre and his uncle, Claude, planted their first vines in 1972. They subsequently acquired multiple plots, eventually creating an estate of 13 hectares in one contiguous area. From then on, the family farm, located on the hills of Chablis, was almost exclusively dedicated to working the vines.

RED BURGUNDY & RHÔNE

A straight run down the autoroute from Dijon to Avignon via Lyon runs through these famous vineyards. Different grapes; Pinot Noir, Gamay, Grenache, Syrah but a similar feel for red wine production affected by the warmer weather as you head south. This is the main artery of French food and wine, a total delight.

LOIRE

A long river with an expanse of vineyards covering much of it, this area provides every style of wine imaginable. The cooler climate here ensures crisp clean dry whites, but also great sweet wines, reds and even sparkling wines of great character. We offer just a small selection, but these are all excellent hand-crafted examples.

DOMAINE BONNARD

A family vineyard of 13 hectares located in the heart of the Sancerre region, Domaine Bonnard have been producing wine for more than half a century, with the founders of the estate, Bernard and Pierrette, still working on their estate. Famously regarded as the 'First Growth of the Languedoc' and compared to the pretigious Château Lafite, Mas de Daumas Gassac are the very best in the Languedoc. Established in 1971, releasing their first vintage in 1978, Gassac became known across the world. In the early 1990's, the Guibert family set themselves a new challenge: the creation of Moulin de Gassac with Mas de Daumas Gassac's hallmark and Guibert's signature.

One of the finest regions of the World for red wines, but don't forget the white wines. The prices for the great wines of the Médoc continue to go through the roof, but the more everyday wines actually offer great value. My friends at the superb Château Ballan-Larquette prove that.

SPAIN

The third largest producer of wines, famed for Rioja, Sherry and Cava, but many other areas are producing really interesting wines. The Albarino grape grown on the Atlantic coast of Galicia is something very special and unique. High in the hills of Ribero del Duero the reds produced there have a totally different character than Rioja even though they use the same grape (they just call it by a different name).

LEGADO MUÑOZ

Founded in 1940, the Muñoz family have been making wine for six generations. Located in the town of Noblejas, south of Madrid, Legado Muñoz have established themselves as an important producer in the La Mancha region, with Bienvenido Muñoz awarded winemaker of the year in 2004. The conditions the region has to offer, such as low rainfall, old vines, and shallow soils, results in fantastically concentrated and extraordinary aromatic wines that always impress.

SOUTH AFRICA

This is a country with the potential to produce great wines. They seem to have most of the key ingredients; climate, soils, terroir, experience and cuisine. Maybe it just takes a bit of time now, a bit more age on the vines, a bit more experience, and a bit more export activity. It is certainly a country I like very much, and I am a great admirer of their wines, always looking to further expand our range. We would like to think of this area as being a specialism of ours.

VILAFONTÉ

A vineyard different by design, with ancient soils, the iconic Vilafonté is the coming together of the very best from California and South Africa - Mike Ratcliffe, Dr Zelma Long, and Dr Phil Freese. The vision is one of an uncompromising determination to produce wines which stand shoulder-to-shoulder with the great wines of the world. Nothing less.

Very expensive real estate which does tend to trickle down into the wine prices a little. Good wines though.

PORT

CHURCHILL'S

Johnny Graham founded Churchill's in 1981, when he was just 29 years old, to make his own personal style of wine, blending tradition with a fresh take on Port and Douro wine. Churchill's has its roots deeply imbedded into quality Port history. As a result, their wine retains the best of their tradition in the slow, human-centred winemaking at the heart of the estate. The finesse and elegance of Grabams, the dryness and acidity of Cockburns and the structure and balance of Taylor's.
